Roosevelt Considers Inquiry Into British Plan On Trade Profits

President and State Department Study English Proposal To Impound Trade Profits of Germany.

TO OFFSET DEBTS

Government Finds It Has Power But Whether or Not It Will Act Is Unknown at Present.

Washington, June 19 (AP).—President Roosevelt and the state department are inquiring into the proposal of Great Britain to impound the trade profits of Germany to offset the refusal of that government to pay foreign debts.

It has been decided definitely that the United States government has the power to do this, but whether it will take action has not been decided.

This was made known today at the President's semi-weekly press conference along with word that Mr. Roosevelt had arranged a meeting with Secretary Perkins and Senator Wagner (D-N. Y.) to organize the new labor set-up under the emergency legislation passed by Congress.

During the talk with his labor aides, the President said he expected the elections by workers to select representatives for dealing with employers to start as fast as practicable.

However, he does not expect the elections to be held in all plants simultaneously or even within ten days, but they are to be as fast as time and facilities permit.

The labor legislation, just enacted, permits the President to appoint mediation boards to adjust labor disputes involving collective bargaining.

Scatters New Measures.

Deluged by more than 200 bills passed in the closing hours of the session, the President scattered the new measures out today to the various departments for examination and will sign them during the ten days allowed by the constitution.

The silver measure will be signed tonight at 8:45 p. m., an hour when all money exchanges are closed.

He expects to study the new legislation while on his forthcoming trip to New England and New York and probably will sign some of the bills while out of the city.

No Comment on Foulis.

In response to inquiries, the President said he had not read a report of the house military committee recommending dismissal of Major General Benjamin D. Foulis as chief of the air forces.

He offered no comment on this, but did show interest in the fact that the committee also was making a report on the Port Newark Supply Base. Again he offered no comment.

Appointment of the stock exchange, communications and housing organizations has been postponed by the President until his return here next Monday from his trip to New Haven, New London and Hyde Park.

Cruise Date Indefinite.

The President said today he expected to sail on his cruise to Hawaii between June 30 and July 4.

He added that he would have lunch with the President of Panama and with the President of Colombia in their countries.

Mr. Roosevelt said the drought situation appeared to be little better, but no worse on the whole.

He said reports said that much depends on July weather, especially in the corn belt which was described as showing some improvement.

Mr. Roosevelt also is considering extension of the activities of the government's Cuban Trade Bank to include loans to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

It was made known that Department of Agriculture experts are raising a constitutional question on the Taylor Grazing Bill and President Roosevelt will confer with them before signing it.

This measure would give the Secretary of Interior control over the public domain to conserve grazing land.

The constitutional question is whether easements to water holes are temporary or permanent. The bill makes them permanent and the department fears this is contrary to a supreme court decision.

Mr. Roosevelt has not decided whether he will sign the bill.

RUTHLESS SLAYER SOUGHT FOR ILLINOIS MURDER

El Dorado, Ill., June 19 (AP).—A cool, ruthless slayer who lured a wealthy dentist to the country, then shot him in the back, took his keys and looted his office was the object of a state-wide search today.

A few hours after the body of the dentist, Dr. Homer L. Myers, 55, was found in a cypress swamp on his farm several miles from here yesterday, Chicago police announced they were convinced they "knew" the slayer and had two places under surveillance.

THREE MEN ARE DEAD FROM FORD ACCIDENTS

Detroit, June 19 (AP).—The death of John Gross early today in Henry Ford Hospital brought to three the number of men fatally injured by an explosion in the Ford Motor Co. plant Monday.

Visiting Nazi Chieftain Has Best Dressed Bodyguard For 25th Harvard Reunion

Cambridge, Mass., June 19 (AP).—Ernst Hanfstaengl has perhaps the best dressed and most unappreciative bodyguards ever to surround a visiting dignitary.

Four Massachusetts State Troopers dog his steps, four troopers garbed in the conventional white flannel trousers and dark sport jackets that mark class day reunions.

The officers even sport the red, green and white hat-bands of Harvard '09. Badges which bear their name, but not their business, hang from their jacket lapels. And—what irritates them most—they wear multi-colored neckties which flaunt the class colors.

Hanfstaengl, confidential aide to Adolf Hitler, German Chancellor, casts admiring glances at his trooper "classmates" as he rushes them from place to place in pursuit of his 25th reunion obligations. He boasts to his 25-years-out-of-Harvard classmates of his bodyguards' "snappy" attire.

He's enjoying his reunion just as hundreds of other old grads, and thinks his trooper friends really quite unnecessary. Anti-Nazi demonstrations are farthest from his thoughts.

To put it in his own words he's having "a delightful time."

But the troopers—they apparently don't relish the assignment. Perhaps because "Hanfy" is a huge man and can take lots of punishment. Perhaps because the multi-colored finery they wear is a bit of a shock to their more conservative tendencies.

It is the first class day celebration they have participated in and the hours they are keeping weary them.

This morning they turned in about 2 a. m. and there wasn't a sign of a let-up for tonight.

"Yes," they mumbled in tired chorus, "it's our first class day—and we hope our last."

Bedraggled Prince Held for Seduction

D'Harcourt Vowed He'll Commit Suicide If Mere Man Interferes With His Romance With Girl—Held As Wayward Minor.

New York, June 19 (AP).—His sangfroid, much-wilted after a night spent in a jail cell, Robert D'Harcourt, undersized poet, painter and philosopher, appeared in the police line-up today on a charge of seduction.

The charge was brought against him as a result of his escapade with Louise Krist, pretty 18-year-old poetess with whom he disappeared June 2.

Miss Krist is awaiting arraignment as a wayward minor.

D'Harcourt—"Prince Childe De Rohan D'Harcourt" in Greenwich village's rather loosely defined peerage—shuddered when Captain Joseph J. Mooney suggested that he had once been a paperhanger.

"Why, sir, that is a rank injustice," he said. "At one time I was known as the best artist in Greenwich Village."

He described himself as 38 years of age, single, an artist, and a native of Guthrie, Oklahoma.

D'Harcourt said that he wanted to marry Miss Krist, the daughter of a musician who eagerly sought the life Bohemian and found the answer in the diminutive "Prince."

When taken into custody yesterday, D'Harcourt confounded police with explanations of the personal philosophy he had evolved.

It was, officials guessed, a philosophy in which D'Harcourt was the central figure—a position he was now glad to share with Miss Krist.

If mere man-made laws interfered with the destiny unseen forces had ordained for Miss Krist and himself, D'Harcourt told police, he would commit suicide.

Captain Mooney read the prisoner's police record which showed that he had served prison terms for grand larceny, and once was sentenced to the workhouse for disorderly conduct.

Three other arrests resulted in discharges.

DOG THAT BIT TWO CHILDREN CAUGHT

A kennel has been built by board of public works employees in the rear of the Municipal Building on East O'Reilly street to house a dog that bit two children here recently. The dog was captured by Officer Relyea near the race track on North Main avenue, and at the suggestion of Dr. Philip Foley of the board of health the dog is being kept under observation for a period of ten days to see if it develops symptoms of rabies. The two children reported bitten by the dog are Florence Post and Betty Phinney. The dog is unclaimed.

Steel Workers' Union 73rd Congress Passes Presents Proposal to Into History; Votes the President On Strike Housing and Rail Bills

Hugh S. Johnson "Very Hopeful" of Acceptance by Steel Industry of Union Four-Point Program To Avoid Strikes.

IMPARTIAL BOARD Suggested to Govern Differences in Steel Industry and Settle Disputes.

Washington, June 19 (AP).—Representatives of the Steel Workers' Union today placed before President Roosevelt in a letter their proposal for settlement of the threatened strike in the steel industry.

Word came from Hugh S. Johnson simultaneously that he was "very hopeful" of acceptance by the steel industry of the union's four-point program for avoiding strikes.

The NRA chief said the proposal drawn by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, seemed "very similar to the plan previously accepted by the industry itself."

"I'm very hopeful about it," said Johnson.

Three Members

The proposal as set forth in the letter to President Roosevelt would: Set up an impartial board of three members to be appointed by the President to handle complaints and to mediate disputes.

The board would be clothed with authority to order and hold elections in plants to determine who shall represent the employees with the organizations selected by the majority of the employees to represent all.

Grievances and complaints regarding wages, hours and conditions of employment would be settled through direct negotiations between the managements and representatives of the workers.

In the event all parties accept the proposal, the threatened steel strike would be declared off with the understanding that questions in controversy would be handled by the board.

The letter asked the President to submit the union's counter proposals to the management of the iron and steel industry for their answer at the earliest possible date.

Leaders Confer.

Even as the submission of this plan to the White House became known, Secretary Perkins was in conference with Green, Michael Tighe, president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, and several other unionists.

Mr. Roosevelt at his press conference earlier said he had called Miss Perkins and Senator Wagner (D-N. Y.) to confer with him on putting into effect the substitute Wagner labor bill enacted in the closing hours of Congress.

This, too, would provide for a mediation board or boards, and in many respects was similar to the union plan. Green intimated to reporters that if his own proposal was rejected, he would seek union approval of the Wagner plan.

Banking Bill Goes Over

The day saw final action on the huge deficiency bill carrying more than $2,000,000,000 for relief and other purposes. A controversial banking bill, making many changes in the banking laws, went over to the next session, thereby helping break the log jam that thwarted Congress from winding up its business last Saturday.

"There has been more action and less talk in this Congress than in any of my recollection," Senator Robinson, Democratic Leader said. He said that under the leadership of President Roosevelt it had done a "wonderful work."

The House, which had marked time most of the last few days, quit in an aura of goodwill. Representative Byrns of Tennessee, the majority leader, called it the "most momentous" Congress ever.

Representative Snell of New York, minority leader, said if he had to be presided over by a Democrat, his vote was for the "General" Speaker Rainey.

The House formally voted to forego a program of jockeying, for fear the country would think it lacked dignity. Then it went ahead and held it anyway.

When the word arrived at the White House that Congress was at last resting from its labors, President Roosevelt was found to be resting too. He was abed, fast asleep.

The Housing Bill

The housing bill as finally sent to the President includes in its provisions:

A guarantee of 20 per cent of loans made by private agencies, with government approval, for home repair and modernization. Individual loans to home owners are limited to $2,000.

Insurance of long term first mortgages on new homes up to $16,000. Insurance of existing mortgages up to 70 per cent of their value.

The Congress, which concluded its second session last night, began its work March 10, 1933, called into special session to deal with the banking crisis. Its sweeping legislation vitally altered the banking and currency systems, legislated the NRA and the AAA into being, placed the government in control of stock exchanges and communications, passed a host of other vital measures.

The President praised its accomplishments in a letter expressing a "spirit of deep satisfaction" at the cooperation between the legislature and the executive.

2 Large Gasoline Tanks Exploded Causing Fire To Billow Over Crowds

Fire of Undetermined Origin Begun as Truck Driver Threw Switch Operating Pump From Tanks to Truck.

Worst Disaster

Seriousness of Blaze Not Realized as Crowds Gather to Watch Fire Preceding Explosion.

Jamestown, N. Y., June 19 (AP).—Six dead and thirty injured, three so critically they were believed dying, was the toll today of Jamestown's worst disaster, the explosion late yesterday of two 20,000 gallon gasoline tanks.

The dead and injured all were burned by great tongues of flames that flashed out immediately after the terrific explosion which followed a fire started in some undetermined manner as a truck driver threw a switch operating the pump lifting the gasoline from the big tanks to trucks.

Start Investigation

Investigations were begun today by the coroner, the district attorney and the city, but all the equipment was destroyed and officials held little hope the cause of the fire could be determined. Some believed a short circuit in the electric pump might have been the cause.

The three believed dying are Harold D. Anderson, 37, and Captain Leonard Hendrickson, 47, fireman, and Merlin C. Buck, 26, a by-stander.

Three were either killed instantly or died immediately after the flames whipped out over the crowd, and three others died during the night. Three of the dead were firemen.

The seriousness of the fire was not revealed by first reports, and a single policeman on duty was unable to keep the crowd back. It had pushed close to the burning tanks, when two of them suddenly blew up. While the screaming, frantic mass of humanity, fought to get back, trampling some, the great tongues of flame billowed out sideways, enveloping many. The firemen, who had stood their ground at the blast, had no chance to get out of the way and two of them dropped almost where they stood, burned to death, practically instantly.

Dragged to Safety.

Many of the injured had to be dragged to safety. While ambulances in Jamestown worked to carry them to hospitals, firemen turned their efforts to two tanks close to the exploded ones, one filled with gasoline, the other holding paraffin. When they found they could not save the third tank, police fired bullets into it to relieve the pressure which caused the flames to sweep out sideways.

VIENNESE BEAUTY SAILS FOR EUROPEAN PORTS

New York, June 19 (AP).—Mrs. Clendenin J. Ryan, the Viennese beauty who her husband charges misrepresented her wealth to him before their marriage in February, sailed for Europe today.

Mrs. Ryan, the former Countess Marie Anne Wurmbrand-Stuppach, said she would return in time to contest the annulment action brought by her husband. Clendenin J. Ryan, member of Mayor LaGuardia's secretariat, and one of the heirs to the huge fortune left by his grandfather, Thomas Fortune Ryan, traction magnate.

Search for Sloop.

Wilmington, N. C., June 19 (AP).—Coast guard craft patrolled the waters off Carolina Beach today searching for an unidentified two-masted sloop reported last night to have been in distress. Persons on land reported they saw the boat apparently vanish in the rough sea. They sent in a call to the Oak Island coast guard station at Southport. A patrol boat and the cutter Naugatuck were dispatched. Persons at Carolina Beach reported the unidentified ship was apparently anchored about three miles off the coast and then suddenly "dropped out of sight."

Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1) $2,668,052,435.97; expenditures $5,729,318,049.15 (including $2,772,825,950.34 of emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures $3,061,265,613.18; gold assets $7,821,470,621.97.

Baby Dead For Two Hours REVIVED AND NOW ALIVE

New York, June 19 (AP).—The tiny heart of a baby who for more than two hours apparently was dead, pulsated rhythmically today.

This six-pound, day-old daughter of Mrs. Esther Rausch was born yesterday with an umbilical cord tightly twisted about her neck. To all appearances, said Dr. Bernard Zieglin, she was dead.

Into the baby's thigh Dr. Zieglin injected alpha loblin, to promote respiration. Into the baby's heart he pressed a needle carrying adrenalin chloride, potent primer of the human engine.

Eyelids stirred. The heart beat feebly. Then came the familiar cry. The baby lived.

North Rondouters Lose on Errors As Williams Allows 2

Jackie Williams turned in a nice pitching performance for the North Rondouter Social Club Sunday afternoon at Quarryville, holding the V-8 team to two hits, but the Socials committed 19 errors and handed the game to the home club by the score of 5-4.

Opposing Williams was Flore, who allowed seven hits, three being pounded out by Captain Phil Komosa of the North Rondouters. One of his smashes was good for two bases.

It was not until the ninth and last inning that the Socials were able to score. They registered all of their four runs in that frame. The Quarryville club made one in the fourth and four in the eighth.

California Varsity Victorious, Washington Freshman Crew Wins

By POSTER HALEY

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 18 (AP).—Rowing followers today were still stating the praises of the great west coast crews, the California varsity and the Washington freshmen as they reviewed the results of the remoral Saturday of the Intercollegiate Rowing Regatta on the Hudson.

Postponed for a year because of economic conditions one of the most colorful and stirring spectacles of the college sports world came back successful renewals since the first race in 1895.

A crowd estimated at from 25,000 to 50,000 persons saw a California varsity eight, every man of which was competing in the regatta for the first time, sweep to close but convincing victory in the four mile race and the husky Washington yearlings row to a five length victory in the two mile opening contest.

Only a smoothly stroking junior varsity from Syracuse saved anything for the east, the orange caramen getting a close victory over Navy in the three-mile Jayvee contest. It was the only race the westerners did not finish a well-beaten fourth.

The varsity race was a west coast parade almost from start to finish. Cornell, Syracuse and Pennsylvania offered some early contention and a fighting Navy crew came up in the last half mile to almost nose out Washington for second place but through most of the four long miles it was the two west coast rivals fighting it out between themselves.

The California victory was a tribute to the coaching genius of little, bespectacled Ky Ebright, mentor of the California crews which won Poughkeepsie and Olympic titles in 1928 and 1932. Taking three untried juniors and five gangling sophomores he whipped them in a few short months into one of the smoothest-stroking eights that ever won a Poughkeepsie championship.

As every man is eligible for two more years of varsity rowing the search for the 1935 American representative in the eight-oared event at Berlin might well cease right now.

To make a pure motor fuel—which gives high-powered, knockless, streamline performance in any car, whether new or old, and still sell it at the same price as ordinary gasolines. That is the Sun Oil Company's one all-important policy.

Our one and only motor fuel, Blue Sunoco, is outstanding in every gasoline quality—fast in acceleration, high in knockless power, smooth in performance, economical in mileage, uniform and pure—yet sells at regular gas price.

Since we make only one first-grade motor fuel—not two or three grades—great economies are effected in the refineries and warehouses, in the number of delivery trucks and gas pumps. That is why we are able to sell our one—and only—high-grade Blue Sunoco at regular gas price.

Roosevelt Considers Inquiry Into British Plan On Trade Profits

President and State Department Study English Proposal To Impound Trade Profits of Germany.

TO OFFSET DEBTS

Government Finds It Has Power But Whether or Not It Will Act Is Unknown at Present.

Washington, June 19 (AP).—President Roosevelt and the state department are inquiring into the proposal of Great Britain to impound the trade profits of Germany to offset the refusal of that government to pay foreign debts.

It has been decided definitely that the United States government has the power to do this, but whether it will take action has not been decided.

This was made known today at the President's semi-weekly press conference along with word that Mr. Roosevelt had arranged a meeting with Secretary Perkins and Senator Wagner (D-N. Y.) to organize the new labor set-up under the emergency legislation passed by Congress.

Pending the talk with his labor aides, the President said he expected the elections by workers to select representatives for dealing with employers to start as fast as practicable.

However, he does not expect the elections to be held in all plants simultaneously or even within ten days, but they are to be as fast as time and facilities permit.

The labor legislation, just enacted, permits the President to appoint mediation boards to adjust labor disputes involving collective bargaining.

Scatters New Measures.

Deluged by more than 200 bills passed in the closing hours of the session, the President scattered the new measures out today to the various departments for examination and will sign them during the ten days allowed by the constitution.

The silver measure will be signed tonight at 8:45 p. m., an hour when all money exchanges are closed.

He expects to study the new legislation while on his forthcoming trip to New England and New York and probably will sign some of the bills while out of the city.

No Comment on Foullois.

In response to inquiries, the President said he had not read a report of the house military committee recommending dismissal of Major General Benjamin D. Foullois as chief of the air force.

He offered no comment on this, but did show interest in the fact that the committee also was making a report on the Fort Newark Supply Base. Again he offered no comment.

Appointment of the stock exchange, communications and housing organizations has been postponed by the president until his return here next Monday from his trip to New Haven, New London and Hyde Park.

Cruise Date Indefinite

The President said today he expected to sail on his cruise to Hawaii between June 30 and July 4.

He added that he would have lunch with the President of Panama and with the President of Colombia in their countries.

Mr. Roosevelt said the drought situation appeared to be little better, but no worse on the whole.

He said reports said that much depends on July weather, especially in the corn belt which was described as showing some improvement.

Mr. Roosevelt also is considering extension of the activities of the government's Cuban Trade Bank to include loans to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

It was made known that Department of Agriculture experts are raising a constitutional question on the Taylor Grazing Bill and President Roosevelt will confer with them before signing it.

This measure would give the Secretary of Interior control over the public domain to conserve grazing land.

The constitutional question is whether easements to water holes are temporary or permanent. The bill makes them permanent and the department fears this is contrary to a supreme court decision.

Mr. Roosevelt has not decided whether he will sign the bill.

El Dorado, Ill., June 19 (AP).—A cool, ruthless slayer who lured a wealthy dentist to the country, then shot him in the back, took his keys and looted his office was the object of a state-wide search today.

Albany, N. Y., June 19 (AP).—Democratic leaders, it was reported, have decided to ask the state senate today to vote upon the official fitness of Warren T. Thayer, who resigned his senate seat, following an investigation of utility connections.

Thayer's resignation was sent to the senate on June 11.

Senator John J. Duunigan, Democratic leader, Senator William T. Byrne, chairman of the judiciary committee that investigated Thayer, and Paul McCauley, committee counsel, conferred on procedure at the special session scheduled for this afternoon.

Steel Workers' Union 73rd Congress Passes Presents Proposal to Into History; Votes the President On Strike Housing and Rail Bills

Hugh S. Johnson "Very Hopeful" of Acceptance by Steel Industry of Union Four-Point Program To Avoid Strikes.

IMPARTIAL BOARD Board Suggested to Govern Differences in Steel Industry and Settle Disputes.

Washington, June 19 (AP).—Representatives of the Steel Workers' Union today placed before President Roosevelt in a letter their proposal for settlement of the threatened strike in the steel industry.

Word came from Hugh S. Johnson, simultaneously that he was "very hopeful" of acceptance by the steel industry of the union's four-point program.

The House formally voted to forego a program of jockeying, for fear the country would think it lacked dignity. Then it went ahead and held it anyway.

When the word arrived at the White House that Congress was at last resting from its labors, President Roosevelt was found to be resting too. He was asleep, fast asleep.

The housing bill as finally sent to the President includes in its provisions:

A guarantee of 20 per cent of loans made by private agencies, with government approval, for home repair and modernization. Individual loans to home owners are limited to $2,000.

Insurance of long term first mortgages on new homes up to $16,000. Insurance of existing mortgages up to 70 per cent of their value.

The Congress, which concluded its second session last night, began its work Monday, June 18, 1933, called into special session to deal with the banking crisis.

Its sweeping legislation vitally altered the banking and currency systems, legislated the NRA and the AAA into being, placed the government in control of stock exchanges and communications, passed a host of other vital measures.

The President praised its accomplishments in a letter expressing a "spirit of deep satisfaction" at the cooperation between the legislature and the executive.

2 Large Gasoline Tanks Exploded Causing Fire To Billow Over Crowds

Fire of Undetermined Origin Began as Truck Driver Threw Switch Operating Pump From Tanks to Truck.

WORST DISASTER

Seriousness of Blaze Not Realized as Crowds Gather to Watch Fire Preceding Explosion.

Jamestown, N. Y., June 19 (AP).—Six dead and thirty injured, three so critically they were believed dying, was the toll today of Jamestown's worst disaster, the explosion late yesterday of two 20,000 gallon gasoline tanks.

The dead and injured all were burned by great tongues of flames that flashed out immediately after the terrific explosion which followed a fire started in some undetermined manner as a truck driver threw a switch operating the pump lifting the gasoline from the big tanks to trucks.

Start Investigation

Investigations were begun today by the coroner, the district attorney and the city, but all the equipment was destroyed and officials held little hope the cause of the fire could be determined. Some believed a short circuit in the electric pump might have been the cause.

The three believed dying are Harold D. Anderson, 37, and Captain Leonard Hendrickson, 47, firemen, and Merlin C. Buck, 25, a by-stander.

Three were either killed instantly or died immediately after the flames whipped out over the crowd and three others died during the night. Three of the dead were firemen.

The seriousness of the fire was not revealed by first reports, and a single policeman on duty was unable to keep the crowd back. It had pushed close to the burning tanks, when two of them suddenly blew up. While the screaming, frantic mass of humanity fought to get back, trampling some, the great tongues of flame billowed out sideways, enveloping many. The firemen, who had stood their ground at the blast, had no chance to get out of the way and two of them dropped almost where they stood, burned to death, practically instantly.

Dragged to Safety.

Many of the injured had to be dragged to safety. While ambulances in Jamestown worked to carry them to hospitals, firemen turned their efforts to two tanks close to the exploded ones, one filled with gasoline, the other holding paraffine. When they found they could not save the third tank, police fired bullets into it to relieve the pressure which caused the flames to sweep out sideways.

DOUBLE MURDER KEEPS POLICEMEN PUZZLED

Bluefield, W. Va., June 19 (AP).—Double murder, as mystifying as it was sudden, sent police on a hunt for a motive today, even though the slayer himself was dead.

The shooting was at Ken Harrison's place. Walter Cheek, a miner of Alcoma, broke in the kitchen door. Without warning he opened fire upon two women—Mrs. Lucinda Harrison (she was Cheek's sister-in-law) and Mrs. Mary Ann Sizemore, Mrs. Harrison's mother. Both women were killed.

Ken Harrison, the husband, snatched a shotgun from the wall and sent a charge of shot into Cheek's body at close range, and Cheek fell dead.

Harrison surrendered to police.

BABY DEAD FOR TWO HOURS REVIVED AND NOW ALIVE

New York, June 19 (AP).—The tiny heart of a baby who for more than two hours apparently was dead, pulsated rhythmically today.

This six-round, day-old daughter of Mrs. Esther Raach was born yesterday with an umbilical cord tightly twisted about her neck. To all appearances, said Dr. Bernard Zaglin, she was dead.

Into the baby's thigh Dr. Zaglin injected alpha loblin, to promote respiration. Into the baby's heart he pressed a needle carrying adrenalin chloride, potent primer of the human engine.

Eyeballs stirred. The heart beat feebly.

Then came the familiar cry. The baby lived.
